The Profits of Religion - Wikipedia

This is not a book against religion, but against the misuse of religion, for profit and power. It's sad to read a comment where someone even confuses Upton Sinclair with Sinclair Lewis... Anyway, the message is clear: Be wary of people who have God in their mouths, hate in their hearts, and money on their minds.

The Profits of Religion: Sinclair, Upton: 9781517752705 ...

Sinclair is a passionate and articulate advocate, and I enjoy his rhetoric on behalf of working people and against social inequality. The main thrust of his argument, however, is that religion, as it now exists, (or more accurately as it then existed) is nothing more than a tool used to keep the oppressed from rising up against a wealthy class that the religious leaders represent.
